

1. select * from swiggy;
2. select count(*) from swiggy;
3. select sum(price) from swiggy;
4. select restaurant ,city,avg_ratings from swiggy order by avg_ratings desc limit 10;
5. select restaurant ,city,avg_ratings from swiggy order by avg_ratings asc limit 10;
6. select city,avg (avg_ratings) as avg_ratings from swiggy group by city order by avg_ratings desc limit 10;
7. select restaurant,avg (avg_ratings) as avg_ratings from swiggy group by restaurant order by avg_ratings desc limit 10 ;
8. select restaurant,avg (avg_ratings) as avg_ratings from swiggy group by restaurant order by avg_ratings desc limit 10 ;
9. select restaurant,avg (delivery_time) as avg_delivet_time from swiggy group by restaurant order by delivery_time desc limit 10 ;
10. select city, count(*) as restaurant_count from swiggy group by city order by restaurant_count desc limit 10;
11. select case when delivery_time<=30 then 'fast'
when delivery_time<=45 then 'medium'
else 'slow'
end as delivey_status,count(*) as restaurant_count from swiggy group by delivey_status;
12. select city, count(*) as restaurant_count from swiggy group by city order by restaurant_count desc ;
13. select sum(city) as city from swiggy;
14. select case when price >= 400 then 'expensive'
when price >=300 then 'cheap'
else 'ok'
end as price_range,
count(*) as total_restaurant from swiggy group by price;
15. select case
when price >= 400 then 'expensive'
when price >=300 then 'cheap'
else 'ok'
end as price_catagory,
count(*) as total_restaurant from swiggy group by price_catagory order by price_catagory ;

16. select restaurant , city from swiggy where avg_ratings>4.5 order by avg_ratings desc;